BUCKLIN BREEZES.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Mrs. R. A. Andrews who has been here nursing her daughter-in-law, Mrs. H. B. Andrews during her long illness, returned to her home in Kinsley Tuesday.

Ed Warner is rushing the improvements on his place just east of town.

We guess the new bowling alley is progressing, but as they work behind closed doors you can't most always tell much about it.

S. E. Coons is doing some building on his lots south of Center street. Just what he is building, whether another ten pin alley, livery barn, coal shed or joint we don't know, but it is something.

Mrs. Lon Hollopeter and children arrived from Oklahoma on No. 29 Tuesday. Mr. Hollopeter is driving through. They formerly lived in Ford township this county but have been living in Oklahoma for several years, where they prospered financially but suffered in health. They are returning to Ford county again to make their home for at least a while and endeavor to regain their health.

A. W. Guerin returned from Kansas City Tuesday where he has been for several weeks.

G. W. Thompson and son have commenced work on their new store house. They are building on Main street south of Center street. As soon as their building is completed they will put in a new stock of groceries and provisions.

We understand there is another business enterprise to be started in Bucklin in the near future.

C. W. Mills took a trip to Goldwater riding returning Monday evening.

HUNT APPEAR

ON EVERY BOX OF THE GENUINE.

Ed Warner says the ground is thoroughly soaked to a depth of five feet and Ed ought to know.

Attorneys Sutton, Seates, Oyler and Reeves of Dodge City passed through Bucklin Tuesday on their way to Meade to attend court at that place.

H. P. McCausland went to Minneola Tuesday evening returning on No. 30.

Miss Elvora Padgett returned from her outing at Newkirk, Okla., last Friday.

Postmaster Watson of Kinsley was a caller here Wednesday.

We are informed that the press, type, etc., for the new paper has arrived and that the proprietors expect to have it in running order in time to get out the first issue next week. So look out for a fresh flood of news, wit and humor and advertisements in proportion.

FORD ITEMS.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Farmers are sowing or getting ready to sow their spring grain. The ground is in excellent condition.

The roads are getting in condition for traveling and hauling. Even four horse teams can now haul limited loads through the lagoons and bayous to and from Bucklin.

William Dellinger is building a dwelling house on his farm, S. E. 24 28 23 and making other improvements.

Mrs. Ella Stanley of Haviland is visiting her mother, Mrs. Catharine Melia.

The Misses Ols and Maude Hollopeter are home from Chicago visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Hollopeter and family.

Mrs. Ella Stanley and her mother, Mrs. Melia, were guests at the Windsor Sunday with Mrs. T. M. Gray.

Clarence Novins was a Sunday visitor at the Hatfield home.

Mrs. Wm. Willy has been very dangerously sick and is still very low.

Rev. E. L. Jones gave his closing sermon of the conference year at the M. E. church. It was an excellent discourse on moral courage. The general wish is for his return another year.

Ford's new arrivals, Mr. Coe, his wife and her sister, Miss Davis of Yates Center entertained Rev. E. L. Jones and lady for dinner Sunday.

We were pleased to see Rob Brick able to "foot" it to church Sunday, only one foot being applied in his pedestrian gait, but two wooden helpers assisted his movements while his unfortunate leg is still on the swing out approaching usefulness once more.

News From THE STATE SOLDIERS' HOME At Fort Dodge, Kas.

Mrs. Tabitha Bruner, widow of the late Wm. Bruner, died on the 17th inst. in the 83rd year of her age. Her husband William, died at the National Military Home, April 25th, 1901, aged 88. He enlisted in Co. C. 2d Pa. Vol. Inf., Jan. 4th, 1847, was in all the important engagements in Mexico and was discharged August 18th, 1848 by reason of close of war.

George M. Miller, Co. D. 13th Ohio Inf., a cooper, from Douglas, Kansas, was admitted February 17th, and with his wife was assigned to quarters in one of the new double cottages. Comrade Miller belongs to a fighting family as his father and seven brothers served through the war of the rebellion. One of his brothers was wounded across the back and he was himself wounded eight times and shows plainly the marks and disabilities of the same.

Michael Kearney will be taken to the State asylum in a few days.

The old boys in camp are engaged in the laudable enterprise of tree planting and at the rate it is being done this home will soon take on the appearance of a Government forest preserve.

Simon Reigner Co. I. 33d Ind. Vol. Inf., who has been confined to his bed in the hospital for a long time with a dislocated knee joint, is improving and there is a hope that he will eventually be able to get around again.

Samuel Gilpin Co. F. 2d Iowa Cavalry, has recovered from an acute attack of rheumatism. His wife who has had an attack of La Grippe is convalescent.

Thomas Dockery Co. K 50th Ills. Vol. Inf., has discovered gold along the river below this camp, which he says runs out twenty five cents worth of gold to every pan full of sand. He has staked out a claim and will organize a stock company to work it.

Wm. McBride Co. G 17th Iowa Vol. Inf., is now in a state of uncertainty about remaining in the home.

Mrs. Beasie Oyler, daughter of Comrade Dudley, who had her left foot badly injured at Newton two weeks ago last Monday by the carelessness of the baggage truckman, has returned to her home at Wichita. The Santa Fe company has offered to settle, but as she expects the injury will be permanent declines to do so at the figure they offer.

Jerome R. Pickett Co. K 6th Ohio Vol. Cavalry, a painter from Goffs, Kansas, has lately been admitted and assigned to quarters in one of the double cottages in front of barracks No. 3.

C. J. Andrews Co. D 40th Ind. Vol. Infantry and Co. D 33rd Ills. Vol. Infantry is improving in health rapidly. He now skips around camp at a lively gait like he always does when the dinner bell rings.

The W. R. C. Victor Post 92 will give a box party at the Post room next Friday evening. The friends of the order are cordially invited.

Comrade Copes 2nd Kansas Battery with his wife will return to his home at Ft. Scott. Mrs. Copes is afflicted with altitude heart trouble is the reason why they are obliged to leave this Home. They have made many friends here and Victor Post 293 G. A. R. will lose one of its most popular members. May God bless and care for them now and at the last roll call.
